

Cowan's Corny Communication

Issue 3, May 23rd, 2005

Greetings! As we all re-gather from various Tabling experiences (no doubt, we'll be hearing a lot from our seasoned conference veterans, as well as our virgins, about their Glasgow experiences- I certainly hope so, anyhow!) its time again to update you with what is happening in Witham 701.

- 1) As you will all know, this Wednesday is a social meeting at the Square and Compass, Fuller Street. If you don't know where this is, please let me know and I'll try and point you in the right direction. I'll also be driving, so if anyone wants a lift, let me know. (01376 501039, leaving an answerphone message if need be, or via e-mail. However, I'm suffering a few problems with e-mail at the moment, so please bear with us- a telephone call might be safer! We're choosing individual items off the menu, so please bring money to this meeting (I hope I've got that right, Ian) and dress code is casual- some sort of table shirt would be good. The Aim is fellowship- a meal, a few drinks and a few good, old fashioned games. The pub has got cards and a crib board; if anyone wants to bring along e.g. dominos or any other social game, that would be good. Any questions, give me a buzz.
- 2) I will also be taking any final names for the Writtle Area event on Wednesday night. As I understand it, I'm booking in the following people for a fiver: Myself, Ian, Andrew, Dave G and Derek (Terry and Paul are booked in independently). Rob has circulated 41 Club and as soon as I get these names (hopefully Wednesday) the booking goes in.
- 3) As can be seen, we have a run of social-type events over the next few meetings: Wednesday, Writtle, The Beer tasting, etc. I'm working on one or two people, and I certainly know that several others of you have also got potential Prospectives in mind. Please encourage people along, and please let me know if you are likely to be bringing someone along to a meeting, so that I am prepared when a new face turns up!
- 4) Talking of the beer tasting at the Swan, could you be thinking as to whether you would be interested in using the minibus if it can be arranged; if enough people are interested, I'll make further enquiries. A rough idea on potential uptake on Wednesday would be useful. (Or an e-mail / answerphone message, if you are not going to be at Fuller Street)
- 5) Finally, thank you to Rob for responding in kind to the 'corny' part of the communication. I did consider using Rob's joke, but, according to Terry, it is disqualified on the grounds of being funny (either you or I are missing something here, Rob?!) Anyway, I'm sure that he'll tell it much better than I would. So, instead, here goes:

Did you here about the little matchstick man lying in the middle of the road?
He fell off the back of a Lowry!
